

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others; and,

Whereas, Dianne Doughty received her bachelor's degree from Adams State College in Colorado and her master's degree from Western State College in Colorado; and,

Whereas, Dianne has given 30 years of dedicated service to the education of children, of which 18 years were spent at the Douglas School District where she most recently served as the art teacher at the Badger Clark Elementary School; and,

Whereas, On May 13, 2005, Badger Clark Elementary School staff will host a retirement celebration in Dianne's honor; and,

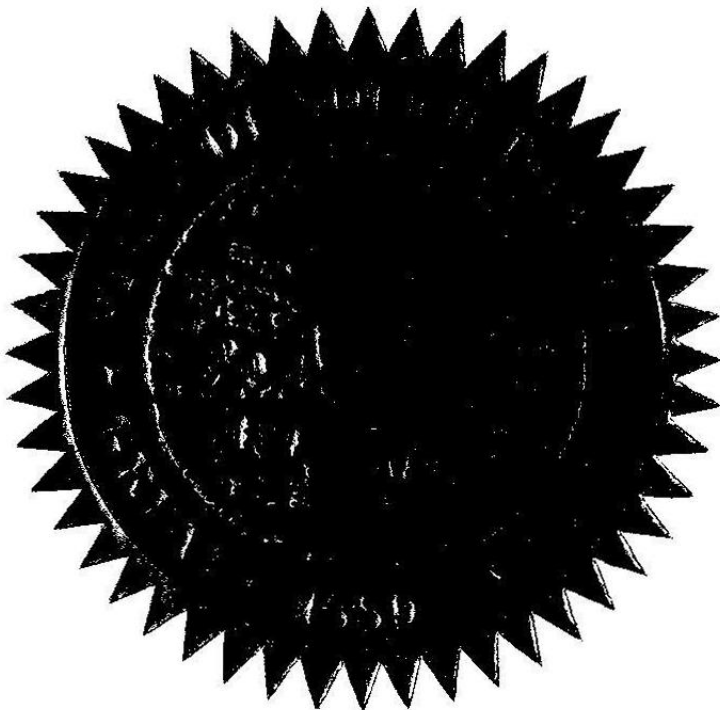

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on the momentous occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 13, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join her colleagues, friends and family as they recognize Dianne for her commitment to a successful career and extend best wishes for a healthy and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds
